

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE OVERVIEW

K-12 MUSEUM EXPERIENCES 2025-2026

Thank you for your interest in visiting The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza with your students! The Museum is committed to ensuring that cost is not a barrier to high-quality educational experiences. Financial assistance is available to qualified North Texas schools to help offset the cost of student admission and educational programming for visits taking place September 2, 2025–August 31, 2026.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE INCLUDES

- $4 per student admission for self-guided Museum experience (regularly $7)
- 50% discount on any Museum-facilitated program or workshop (regularly $125)
- One free teacher/chaperone ticket for every 10 students (additional adult tickets at regular admission rate)

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Schools must be in Texas Education Service Center Regions 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, or 12
- Schools must meet one of the following:
  - Be designated as a Title I campus or
  - Have at least 30% of enrolled students participating in Federal Free & Reduced Lunch Program
- Must meet Museum school group booking criteria:
  - K-12 class receiving a grade for the class affiliated with the visit
  - Accredited school or home school group
  - Minimum of 20 students per group
- Financial assistance is not available for visits in March 2026

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Applications must be submitted at least 4 weeks before the requested visit date
- There must be a reservation request on file before applying for assistance (reservations can be canceled if needed)
- Completed applications will be reviewed, and teachers will be notified of the decision within two weeks via email
