Shaping History

$100 | 50 minutes | K–3rd grades | ≤60 students

Learn about President Kennedy and his life through the objects and buildings around him. Students will follow President Kennedy's journey from childhood through his presidency and create a story book using basic shapes and patterns to draw the places important to him.

Conflicting Evidence

$100 | 50 minutes | 4th–8th and 9th–12th grades | ≤60 students

Students become crime scene investigators, evaluating evidence found within the first 24 hours of the assassination of President Kennedy. Students will study primary source documents and images to determine their accuracy and gain a better understanding of what transpired on November 22, 1963. After reviewing the evidence and information provided, students will create a final report detailing their findings.
