CORE EDUCATION PROGRAMS

A Hero at Sea: PT-109 and the 1960 Presidential Campaign

5th–12th Grades | 50 minutes

$100 @Museum | $125 @School* | $100 Distance Learning

In 1943, Lt. John F. Kennedy's motor torpedo boat PT-109 was sunk during World War II, prompting heroic actions by Kennedy that framed his public image in 1960. Learn about the impact of this extraordinary story on the 1960 presidential campaign and how presidential candidates have used – or not used – their veteran's status as part of their political narrative.
